AWARDS FOR ICT STUDENTS

A celebratory event marked the achievements of students who have gained qualifications in Information and Communications Technology with Wolverhampton Adult Education Service.

Awards were presented to a number of learners who have completed ICT qualifications from Entry to Advanced Level.

The event at Pendeford Community Learning Centre on Friday, May 18, was sponsored by the British Computer Society and PC World in Wolverhampton which both supplied prizes for learners.

Special learning awards were also presented by Councillor Trudy Bowen on her second engagement as the new Mayor of Wolverhampton to Mrs Lurlene Watson and community groups from Underhill Community Learning Centre and the Bethel Church.

For more information about ICT courses at Wolverhampton Adult Education Service or the above event contact Julia Wynn on 01920 558180, email enquiries@aes.wolverhampton.gov.uk or check the website www.aes.wolverhampton.gov.uk for courses starting in September
