

PRESS RELEASE
May, 2007

CARIBBEAN EVENING

A Caribbean evening featuring an awards ceremony is being hosted by Wolverhampton's Adult Education Service to celebrate Adult Learners' Week.

The evening, on Thursday May 24, will celebrate the 15 individuals and 1 group who have been nominated for National Adult Learners' Week awards from among the service's students. All of them will be presented with certificates during the ceremony.

Adult Learners' Week runs from May 19 to May 25 and the awards are presented by NIACE, the National Institute of Adult and Continuing Education.

After the ceremony everyone is invited to celebrate diversity within the adult education service and Wolverhampton, with a steel band, gospel choir, language taster sessions, art exhibition and traditional Caribbean food and drink. All are welcome to attend this event.

The event will take place at Pendeford Community Learning Centre, Marsh Lane, Fordhouses, from 6.00pm to 9.30pm.
